Greetings!

Welcome to Kumoricon 2008.

This Pocket Programming Guide will help you find all the information on all the fun things going on at the convention quickly and easily!

We hope you enjoy the convention!

Policies Quick Reference

Please read the full list of policies in the main convention book. Details of important policies are repeated here for your convenience :

Age Requirements

- 12 and under – Can attend all events that do not have an age restriction until convention curfew at midnight, and must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian paid attendee.
- 13-17 – Can attend all events that do not have an age restriction, until convention curfew at midnight, and must have a Parental Permission Form on file by check-in.
- 18 and over – Can attend all events at the convention, including age-restricted events by showing government-issued photo ID at the door to such events.

Lanyard

- When you check in, you will receive a lanyard for your badge. This is proof that you've checked in and the best way to keep your badge on your person. Keep the lanyard attached to your badge and visible at all times. This is the easiest way for the staff to know that you are allowed inside the convention space. If we can't see your lanyard, we might stop you on your way to something fun!

Convention Tips

Know the area!

It's good to get a general understanding of the layout of the convention itself, but its even better to get to know the local area. Restaurants, shops, parks, and other places are all good to know. If you are meeting others who may not know the area, locate a fairly easy to find landmark at the convention : an elevator, near the bathrooms, anything that is easily recognized and found by other convention goers. This also serves as a place to meet up if you get seperated.

Try to avoid the main lobby and other high traffic areas, as it will be much easier to find each other in less crowded areas.

Planning is the key to survival!

Overwhelmed with all that is going on? So many events and so little time? This pocket guide and the main convention book are all extremely helpful in knowing when something is going on, and from there you can decide on what to attend. Events, panels, and workshops you would like to attend should take priority over trips to the Viewing or J-Rock rooms. You can watch anime and listen to music at home, but you might not be able to attend that Slants concert as easily.

Make notes of where the rooms are that you want to visit, so you aren't scrambling at the last minute, trying to find out where Viewing 2 room is.

Take care of yourself!

Don't pressure yourself to get everything you can out of the convention. Relax and take in the experience instead of rushing to see and do everything you could possibly want. Pace yourself, drink lots of water, eat good meals, and have fun. Don't run yourself ragged, or you might take home a cold (or worse) along with your anime goodies!

Budget your spending!

Don't drain your wallet on the first day. Good things can surface later in the convention, and you may regret buying that set of manga when that special something pops up near the end.

Don't lose your badge!

This explains itself, really. Avoid the headache, make sure you have that badge at all times!

Guests of Honor

Tommy Yune

Tommy Yune has worked for over a decade in the comic book and video game industries. His early game development experience includes character design of the pioneering 3D fighting game FX Fighter for the Nintendo Super FX chip and conceptual design of the award-winning Journeyman Project series. He also wrote and illustrated hit comic book titles such as Speed Racer, Racer X, Robotech, and Danger Girl: Kamikaze which were published by DC Comics' Wildstorm and Cliffhanger labels. His first work in feature animation was creating the computer-generated opening sequence of Kevin Altieri's Gen13.

Tommy first worked in an official capacity for the Robotech universe by helping design Robotech.com for its launch in 2001. He has since come aboard as Harmony Gold's creative director and oversees new development, including Robotech: The Shadow Chronicles which completed production in 2006.

Richard Epcar

Richard Epcar is an American voice actor for many dubbed anime series, including Robotech, Ghost in the Shell: Stand Alone Complex and SAC 2nd GIG, as well as the Viewtiful Joe anime, and most recently Bobobo-bo Bo-bobo.

He is also well-known for some of his past work in various Saban action shows. Some of his best-known roles from that era include the voice of Lightningborg in Beetleborgs Metallix, Barbarax in Power Rangers: Lost Galaxy, and Colonel Icebot in VR Troopers. He has also voiced many minor characters in the Power Rangers franchise.

Kaja and Phil Foglio

Kaja Foglio is a Seattle-based writer, artist, and publisher. She founded Studio Foglio, LLC in 1993 as a venue for her Magic: The Gathering art prints, but quickly expanded into publishing. She co-writes the comic series Girl Genius with her husband Phil, and is the chief graphic designer and web mistress for Studio Foglio and Airship Entertainment, and masterminded their stunningly successful transition to webcomic form.

Phil Foglio won the Hugo Award for Best Fan Artist back in 1977, and is still waiting for the wealth and unlimited power he was told this would bring. Over the years he has worked in the fields of science fiction, comics, and gaming. His current project is the comic book series Girl Genius, which he works on with his wife, Kaja.

You can read Girl Genius comics online at www.girlgenius.net.

Carl Horn

Carl Gustav Horn is a manga editor at Portland's own Dark Horse Comics (celebrating its 20th anniversary of manga publishing this year!) including such works as CLAMP's Clover, Kosuke Fujishima's Oh My Goddess! And Eiji Otsuka and Housui Yamazaki's The Kurosagi Corpse Delivery Service. A former editor at Animerica and Pulp magazines, he has worked in the U.S. Anime and manga industry since 1993, and was a co-author with Patrick Macias on Japan Edge, the first book on otaku culture to be reviewed in the mainstream media. He has contributed to the U.S. DVD releases of Appleseed: Ex Machina, Gunbuster, Gunbuster 2, Royal Space Force, Patlabor 2, and Jin-Roh, and has provided commentary on the field to Weekly Comic Morning, Square Jump, Newsweek Japan, the Nihon Keizai Shimbun, AERA, Clarin, the Los Angeles Times, The Hollywood Reporter, NPR, and Wired.

The Anime Hunters

They come from the city in the desert. They have traversed mountains, rivers, and had many bathroom stops. They have come, to entertain you! They are The Anime Hunters!

Dane (Yatta Dante) and Zach (Yatta Cloud), the hosts of the well recognized comedy group, The Anime Hunters, have been attending Kumoricon since 2004. Along with fellow members Jeremy (Random Dancing Kid) and Cassie (Chibiroh) They have performed multiple skits, hosted two panels, and host an online comedy show. And now they are back to bring entertainment to Kumoricon!

Guests of Honor

Greg and Elizabeth Dean

Greg Dean has a very hard time focusing. In the past few years, he's worked as a small plane refueler, a personal assistant, a graphic designer, a web designer, a culinary student, a cook, and of course, a cartoonist.

Greg has been writing and illustrating his online comic Real Life since late 1999, making it the longest he's ever paid attention to just one thing. For those who may not have heard of it (SHAME on you!) Real Life is a semi-autobiographical comic about the author and his friends. What's meant by semi-autobiographical? Well, it deals with such subjects as going to work or school, road trips to Michigan, and building a giant orbital space station of death.

Elizabeth is the other side of this team. Although she and Greg hadn't met by the time the comic was created, she has quickly made herself a major role in the comic's workings. She does just about everything except for draw the comic herself. Greg and Elizabeth worked so well together as a team that they decided to get married as well.

You can read Real Life at www.reallifecomics.com.

Kirk Thornton

Kirk Thornton returns to Kumoricon as a guest for the third year in a row, after attending Kumoricon, his first anime con, as a guest in 2006. A native of Oregon, he worked his way into anime taking the traditional path: classical actor training (University of Washington), Oregon Shakespearean Festival, New York off Broadway and regional theater, Los Angeles film and television, and dry cleaners where he ran into an anime director.

18 years in the trenches and some of the roles he has to show for it are Jin (Samurai Champloo), Hiei (Yu Yu Hakusho), Tazuna (Naruto), Saidoh (Bleach), and Gabumon and Mummyon (Digimon). Several of the projects he can currently be heard on are Bobobo as Don Patch, Hare+Guu as Lazy, GUNxSWORD as Claw, and various bad guys in Idate Jump, The Prince of Tennis, and Zoids. He has just finished work on Planetes as Hachirota, Ghost in the Shell: SAC as Kuze, Gankutsuou: The Count of Monte Cristo as Baptistan and Caderousse, and IGPX as Mark. Other credits include Gungrave (Brandon Heat), Blackjack (Blackjack), Kikaider (Hattori), Dual (Dr. Sanada), Duel Masters, Bedaman, Last Exile, Stellvia, Vandread, Heat Guy J, Love Hina, Wolf's Rain, Akira, Fushigi Yuugi, and Rurouni Kenshin.

His voice has also appeared in video games, such as Kingdom Hearts II (Saix), Resident Evil Outbreak, Mission Impossible, Hack, Scaler, Company of Heroes, Tales of the Abyss, Call of Duty 3, and Time Shift.

Kirk has directed the English dubs of S-CRY-ed, Gad Guard, Cosmo Warrior Zero, Tsukihime, Mars Daybreak, Otogi Zoshi, and Destiny of Shrine Maiden, holding the lead script adapter and story editor positions for all of them. He is currently co-directing Bleach.

Video games that he has directed include Enchanted Arms, Rogue Galaxy, Samurai Champloo, and Time Crisis 4. He's just finishing up a whirlwind road tour chasing down wrestlers in a mobile recording studio and directing them in the WWE Smackdown! Vs. RAW 2008 video game.

The Slants

The Slants return to Kumoricon for 2008, where they made their anime convention debut in 2007!

The Slants are an Asian dance/rock band from Portland, OR, formed in 2006 by members of The Stivs, Son of Rust, and Evening at the Black House. Collectively, the members have had over 2,500 live performances, and have worked with legendary producer Jack Endino (Nirvana, Soundgarden, Murder City Devils), as well as shared the stage with Joey Ramone, Nine Inch Nails, and members of Social Distortion, NOFX, and Bad Religion. The band has also produced remixes for Bjork, The Cure, and Information Society.

Their music is a cacophony of melodic rock intricacy tempered by darker dance themes with anthemic choruses and shattering hooks reminiscent of groups such as The Faint, Depeche Mode, Daft Punk, and Joy Division – except with an Asian spin. Perla Cadena of Sony BMG Music Entertainment claims "If you like danceable rock or anything Asian, you'll love The Slants!" The band is currently writing and recording for their first release (to be scheduled in summer 2007), which will be followed by aggressive touring and promoting.

The Slants are a hardworking band: every show is supported with full Internet advertising, listings and releases in the weekly papers of every city they play in, and for hometown shows there is always unprecedented saturation with posters and flyers. Their energy carries through not only on recordings, but live performances as well: as founder Simon Young said, "usually at every show, one of us ends up bleeding" (Pretty Vacant Zine)."

Visit The Slants online at www.theslants.com.
